This can be read through to remind us of the Good News we celebrate at Pentecost

“GOOD NEWS”

‘The joy and happiness the Good News brings’

Some ideas of a Focal Point:

“good news” cards
newspaper cuttings of “good news”
spring flowers
candle (surrounded by flowers)
crucifix

Bible open at Acts 2: 1-4

Read: Let us begin our prayer time together by lighting our candle to remind us of the “good news”... that Jesus is risen...

Good News is something we like to share with others. Everyone shares our happiness when we tell them our news.

Can your child remember some good news they would like to share?

When you're sad for some reason, it's really difficult to pass on good news to others, when you don't feel good yourself. We are going to hear how Jesus' friends changed from being sad to feeling happy again.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

After Jesus had gone back to his Father in heaven, his friends were sad. They missed him. They felt lonely and afraid without him. On Pentecost day, they were all together in the house. Crowds of people came to Jerusalem to celebrate the feast. The friends of Jesus did not go out to join them. They stayed all together in the house. They talked about Jesus and remembered what he had told them. They began to feel different. Joy and happiness filled their hearts. It was wonderful. They knew that Jesus had kept his promise to send a new friend, the Holy Spirit. “Let's go out and join the crowds.” Peter said. “Let's tell them the Good News that Jesus is alive.”

Reader: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Look at your wind socks, Listen to ‘Happy’ by Pharrell Williams.

Read: The Bible tells us that the friends of Jesus missed him. But what had Jesus promised? Why did they want to share the good news with everyone?

Pentecost, which is sometimes called the Church's birthday will soon be here. Let us try to remember to thank God each day for sending God's Holy Spirit as our friend until Pentecost comes.
