

EnglishFronted Adverbials

Today, we will look at the role of fronted adverbials.

Varying the sentence openers we use is a simple way to improve the overall quality of our text.

A Year 2 child will open most of their sentences with The, My or I. By the time you reach Year 4, you would be expected to open your sentences with adverbs - Bravely, Cautiously, Nervously... onomatopoeia - Bang!, Crash!, Knock!... speech - "Where have you been?" "Hey, you!" ... conjunctions - Therefore, Consequently, Due to...

Look at the Oak National Academy and you can follow the video and tasks there related to fronted adverbials:

Fronted Adverbials

Fronted Adverbials are words or phrases at the beginning of a sentence which are used to describe the action that follows.

Time	Frequency	Place	Manner	Possibility
Afterwards,	Often,	Above the clouds,	Sadly,	Almost unbelievably,
Already,	Again,	Below the sea,	Slowly,	Much admired,
Always,	Daily,	Here,	Happily,	Nearly asleep,
Immediately,	Weekly,	Outside,	Awkwardly,	Quite understandably,
Last month,	Fortnightly,	Over there,	Bravely,	Really happily,
Now,	Yearly,	There,	Like a ... ,	Perhaps,
Soon,	Sometimes,	Under the ground,	As quick as a flash,	Maybe,
Yesterday,	Rarely,	Upstairs,	As fast as he could,	Just arrived,
Today,	Every second,	In the distance,	Without a sound,	Certainly amused,
Tomorrow,	Twice a year,	Between the sea and the sky,	Without warning,	Obviously angry,
Next year,	Once a minute,	Everywhere she looked,	Unexpectedly,	Definitely confused,
In January,	Once,	Around the tent,	Unfortunately,	Completely exhausted,
On Tuesday,	Once or twice,	Back at the house,	Suddenly,	Barely alive,
In the morning,	Three times,	Nearby,	Mysteriously,	Out of breath,
After a while,	Constantly,	Down by the cliffs,	Frantically,	Decidedly unimpressed,
As soon as she could,	Regularly,	Behind the shed,	Anxiously,	Perfectly confident,
Before long,	Frequently,	In the wooden box,	Courageously,	Positively trembling with excitement,
All of a sudden,	Infrequently,	Over my bed,	Silently,	Purely practically,
In the blink of an eye,	Occasionally,	Somewhere near here,	Curiously,	Somewhat flustered,
Just then,	Rarely,	Far away,	Nervously,	Utterly joyous,
Eventually,	Never in my life,	Wherever they went,	Rapidly,	Totally overwhelmed,
Later,	Never before,	North of here,	Carefully,

Maths

Measurement - Length

If you would like, you can continue to follow the Oak National Academy's measurement week. The website has a great video for you to watch and complete the tasks related to time problems. The video will take you through the steps you need to complete in order to answer a set of problems.

<https://www.thenational.academy/year-4/maths/measures-length-ribbon-riddle-year-4-wk4-3>

The screenshot shows a video player interface. At the top, it says "Moving on - Answers". Below that, a purple box contains the text: "Matthew sold 11 ribbons altogether. Each ribbon was 80 cm long. What was the total length of ribbon sold? Answer in metres." To the left of the text is a red ribbon. To the right is a white box with a pink border containing the text "Show your working out." and four lines of math problems: "80 x 11 = _____ cm", "8 x 11 = _____ cm", "____ x 10 = _____ cm", and "_____ cm = _____ m". At the bottom of the video player, there is a progress bar and a timestamp of 00:45.

Maths - Multiplication Games

Your challenge:

- Are you ready to have a multiplication challenge?

How to play:

1. This game is simple, but addictive! Write the numbers from 1 to 12 on small paper rectangles, make three or four sets of these. You can extend the numbers beyond 12 if you wish. Shuffle all three sets of the digit papers you have made and then deal them between the two players. You could play this with a deck of cards, decide what numbers the Jack, Queen and King would represent, e.g. Jack = 11, Queen = 12 and King = 13.
2. At the same time, each player turns over one of their cards and puts it in the middle.
3. Race your partner to shout out the answer that you get when you multiply both the numbers together. For example, if you turned over an 8 and your partner turned over a 6, you would shout out 48, because $8 \times 6 = 48$.
4. The person who shouts out the correct answer first gets to keep both cards. Keep playing until one player has run out of cards.
5. Play at least three rounds. Who will be the champion?

Art

Lockdown Art

In many years from now, you may have forgotten what it was like during lockdown, how you felt and what you did. Keeping a diary or writing about lockdown in another form might help you to express your feelings and it might be really nice to look back at one day.

Today, you could create a piece of art in order to capture a moment of lockdown. You can choose to complete any piece of work you would like to. These are just ideas. You might want to include your whole family!

You could paint your family members' hands and print them on paper. You could draw around their hands on coloured paper, cut them out and stick the coloured hands onto paper.

Art

To make a dough for a handprint:

You will need:

- * 500g plain flour
- * 250g salt
- * 250 ml water

Mix flour, salt and water into a dough.

Roll out then press handprints.

Bake in oven on lowest temp for 3-4 hours.

Paint then varnish to seal.

Mindfulness

Random Acts of Kindness

It is scientifically proven that doing good deeds for other people makes us feel good!
It improves our mood and can actually help us to live longer!

This week, why not carry out a few secret random acts of kindness?

You could:

Change your brother's bed sheets!

Empty the dishwasher before your parent does.

Wake up early and set up the breakfast table for the rest of your family.

Give your dad a foot massage.

Give your mum a make over!

Offer to clean up the kitchen after dinner so your parent can have a rest.
